Step 8 You will be issued with your Taxi Ancillary Certificate so you can begin to drive a Taxi.

General Information

Meeting the Character Requirements – To be issued with a Taxi Ancillary Certificate you must be of good character.

When assessing a person's offences the Registrar looks at a number of factors including Road Safety, Honesty/Integrity and Social Behaviour. See:

www.transport.tas.gov.au/\_data/assets/pdf\_file/0016/123190/Ancillary\_Certificate.

If you have:

- Been convicted of a criminal offence, or a serious traffic offence;
- Been refused a Taxi or Public Vehicle Licence, or
- Had a Taxi or Public Vehicle Licence cancelled,

You may be required to supply a letter to the Registrar of Motor Vehicles outlining why you should be issued with a Taxi Ancillary Certificate. You should also provide other documents supporting your application (e.g. character references). You should do this when you apply for your National Police Certificate and before you undertake the Literacy Assessment and Taxi Driver Training Course.

National Police Certificate - Good Character or Personal References previously obtained by or for other institutions, persons, agencies (Government or otherwise), or National Police Checks or Certificates obtained from an internet based facility or website will not be accepted.

How long is a Taxi Ancillary Certificate valid – A Taxi Ancillary Certificate is valid for 12 months. A renewal notice will be sent to you before your Taxi Ancillary Certificate expires.

If you are disqualified from driving, your Taxi Ancillary Certificate will be automatically cancelled. Unless the court issues you with a Restricted Driver Licence to drive a Taxi, you will have to re-apply for your Taxi Ancillary Certificate and provide the Registrar of Motor Vehicles with a letter of explanation outlining why you should be re-issued with a Taxi Ancillary Certificate.

Guidelines page 2 of 3

What happens after a Taxi Ancillary Certificate is granted – Regular checks will be made of your conviction and driving record. If you commit a criminal offence or crime, any alcohol/drug related offence or other traffic offences your Taxi Ancillary Certificate may be cancelled.

You must undertake a medical which will be conducted in accordance with the Assessing Fitness To Drive Guidelines at the commercial standards:

- every three years until you turn 65 years of age
- every year from the age of 65, or
- at any time as required by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

You are not required to have a driving assessment unless requested by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

Exemption to hold an Australian Drivers Licence for 12 months – You may be able to apply for an exemption to the minimum 12 month licensing period. To be eligible for this exemption you must meet certain employment criteria. Contact the Service Tasmania on 1300 135 513 for more information regarding this exemption.

Assistance in learning English – Contact the Migrant Education Centre on 6216 4482 at the Tasmanian Polytechnic.
