

Conveyance Allowance car travel information for school year 2018

PT300-6

Why is there a Conveyance Allowance Scheme?

The Conveyance Allowance Scheme helps to meet some of the cost families face to transport their child from home to school or college as they live in an area not serviced by an urban bus service.

What is Conveyance Allowance?

It is a payment for eligible families to help with part of the cost to transport their child from home, to the school or bus stop, by private car.

What are the eligibility criteria?

To be eligible, a child must meet each of the following:

1. be school aged (turning between the ages of 5 and 18 in 2018)
2. be enrolled:
 - for the full year, in full time education (Kindergarten is considered full time education) at a school recognised by the Department of Education or
 - in the 'Transition to School' program and
3. live outside an area with an urban bus service, and more than 5 kilometres from the nearest Government home area or educationally appropriate school or bus stop.

How is the amount of Conveyance Allowance determined?

The payment is calculated individually for each eligible family. It is calculated using the number of days in each term, multiplied by the distance travelled and then by the Conveyance Allowance rate.

The distance travelled is determined by the most direct route on public roads from the child's primary home address (during school terms) to the closest:

- Government home area school, or bus stop servicing that school or
- educationally appropriate school, or bus stop servicing that school.

It is paid in two payments, the:

- first is made in June and the
- second is made in December.

When to apply?

Applications must be received by 15 May 2018 to be assessed for the full school year.

Applications received after 15 May 2018 will only be assessed for terms 3 and 4.

No applications will be accepted after 15 November 2018 for the current school year.

A new application is required every school year.

How to apply?

To apply for Conveyance Allowance, the Conveyance Allowance car travel application form for school year 2018 must be used

A new application is required each school year, using the form that is issued for that school year. If an application is not made on the current version, a new application form will need to be completed.

How to complete the form?

When completing the Conveyance Allowance car travel application form for school year 2018, it must include:

- the travel details for each child, for each school day
- a letter from the school (which the child is attending) stating the child's full name, date of birth, home address and confirmation of enrolment at that school and
- a map showing the most direct route on public roads from the child's primary home address during school terms to the school at which they are enrolled or bus stop to access that school.

How to complete the form if the child is travelling beyond the closest Government home area school?

	Evidence Required
If the child is: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• travelling beyond the closest Government home area school, or bus stop servicing that school, as they are enrolled at an educationally appropriate school to meet their needs	Confirmation by the Learning Services Office at the Department of Education (www.education.tas.gov.au) that the school of enrolment is the closest educationally appropriate school to meet the child's education needs, why it is the best equipped school to meet the student's needs, and details on why the closest school and any schools between the student's home and the chosen school are not appropriate to cater for the student's needs
If the child has a disability and is unable to use public transport	A letter from the child's medical practitioner stating that the child has a physical or mental disability preventing them from using public transport

How to submit a Conveyance Allowance application?

Send the form and any supporting evidence via:

- email: passenger.transport@stategrowth.tas.gov.au
- mail: Passenger Transport, GPO Box 1242, Hobart TAS 7001

How is an application assessed?

An application is assessed to ensure that each child listed in the application meets the eligibility criteria. This includes checking evidence provided with the application, along with other information that we have available to us, for example:

- the child's enrolment at school through the Department of Education and/or the school in which the child is enrolled
- information contained in the register of driver licensing and vehicle registration
- information available to the Department of State Growth
- issue of a Student Bus Pass and
- records that are in the public domain (telephone books etc).

What cross-checks are made before making payment?

It takes time to assess a child's eligibility and to ensure the correct payment is made.

To ensure the child continues to be eligible for Conveyance Allowance and the correct amount is paid, the following may be checked:

- the child's attendance/enrolment at school, through the school and/or the Department of Education
- the child is travelling to school from home, or vice versa, on the days nominated in the application
- the child's home address matches the address on the application
- the most direct route on public roads
- the child's Student Bus Pass usage
- records in the public domain
- information that is available to the Department of State Growth and
- information contained in the register of driver licensing and vehicle registration.

These checks may result in deductions to a payment or recovering overpayment from the family.

How do I notify when details change?

A notification (for example a change of address, bank account details or school enrolment) must be made within 7 days. To notify a change of details go to www.transport.tas.gov.au/passenger/student_travel

It is important to let us know when details change as it may lead to an overpayment. If an overpayment is made, the overpayment may be recovered.
