

STATUTORY DECLARATION DETAILS OF LOST LOGBOOK

I, ....., of .....
 (full name, occupation) (address)

do solemnly and sincerely declare that my logbook has been lost or stolen, and the information below is an accurate recreation of my logbook.

Licence number: ..... Contact phone no: .....

| Where you drove from and to. | How Long | Supervisor's Full Name | Supervisors Licence number | How often/Dates  |
|------------------------------|----------|------------------------|----------------------------|--|
| Example:Moonah to Rosny  | 25 mins  | Mary Jane Supervisor   | X55555                     | 3 times a week,every week from1/1/16 to 1/3/16 |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |
|                              |          |                        |                            |  |

I make this solemn declaration under the Oaths Act 2001

Signed: .....

Declared at ..... on .....
 (place) (date)

before me
 .....
 (Justice, commissioner for declarations or authorised person)

Personal Information Protection Statement Personal information we collect from you for Registration and Licensing processes will be used by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles for that purpose and may be used for other purposes permitted by the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999 and associated laws. Your personal information may be disclosed to contractors and agents of the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, law enforcement agencies, the Motor Accident Insurance Board, vehicle manufacturers (safety recalls only), courts and other public sector bodies or organisations authorised to collect it. This information will be managed in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 and may be accessed by you on request to this Department. You may be charged a fee for this service. Failure to provide this information may result in your application not being processed or records not being properly maintained.

Instructions

1. Fill out your personal details, and don't forget your licence number and phone number.
2. Complete the table with as much detail as you can remember from your logbook, such as dates, how long you drove for, where you drove to and from, and how often you did that drive.
3. Sign at the bottom of the page.
4. Give this declaration back to the Service Tasmania officer to sign and process.
5. An officer from the Department of State Growth may contact you about your declaration and may require further information.
6. A note will be placed on your licence record if your declaration has been approved.

It may take up to 2 weeks for your declaration to be approved.
This must be completed BEFORE booking a driving test.

CSOs please note:

The statutory declaration must be signed by the learner, or their parent or guardian if they are under 18. Alternatively, if a learner is under 18, they can have the statutory declaration witnessed by a Justice of the Peace.

The completed original statutory declaration must be sent to Driver Assessment and scanned to driver.assessment@stategrowth.tas.gov.au , who determines whether the declaration is adequate. If yes, a note will be put on the MRS stating that they do not need to show their logbook for the driving assessment.